

Dentons HPRP partners writes legal consultation column in property business magazine

September 26, 2016

Dentons HPRP partners in the Real Property practice manage a legal consultation column in a monthly property magazine, Property Business.

Al Hakim Hanafiah, Dentons HPRP partner and head of the Real Property practice group said, "We understand the community's need for legal services is developing fast, including in the property sector. Committed to provide the best legal services, we at Dentons HPRP are always looking for ways to meet these ever-changing needs." He went on to say, "Apart from providing legal services for our clients, Dentons HPRP also wants to make a contribution in educating the public on legal matters. We encourage all firm members to share knowledge and experience with the public. Participation in managing a legal consultation column in this property magazine is one form our commitment takes."

Chief Operating Officer and Editor-in-Chief of Panangian Media Group, Purjono Agus Suhendro, added, "We invited Dentons HPRP to manage the legal consultation column in our magazine and online news as we see that the firm and its lawyers give more consideration to real property legal matters. The responses provided to every question are clear and enlighten our readers. We hope the column managed by Dentons HPRP in our media benefits all of us."

The legal consultation column has been published in 3 editions since June 2016. Al Hakim Hanafiah and Fabiola Hutagalung have participated in the column.

Property Business is a monthly magazine which provides property reviews and the latest property news, under Panangian Media Group, along with web portal Panangiannews.com.

Dentons HPRP's Real Property practice group has been successfully assisting with many transactions of both local and international clients.
