The series of competitions had expert adjudicators from different backgrounds, such as legal practitioners, government officials, and academics. As part of the judging process, Hendra with other judges had the chance to comment directly to the participants. This direct interaction was aimed at the participants being able to comprehend better developing and drafting a contract and to negotiate it, so that they could apply these skills in their work later.

The series of competitions, moots, legal opinions, and contract drafting & negotiation, ran from 17 to 20 May 2017. Held at UPH, Karawaci, May 17 to 20, 2017, the competitions were attended by 49 law students from 23 prominent universities in Indonesia.
