

Dentons HPRP wins "Aviation Law Firm of the Year" in the 2018 Indonesia Law Awards

October 9, 2018

Dentons HPRP wins the "Aviation Law Firm of the Year Award" at the 2018 Indonesia Law Awards in Jakarta, on 4 October 2018.

Andre Rahadian, the Partner who leads the Dentons HPRP's aviation team said, "The recognition means more than winning the award for us. This means we have won the acceptance of clients and the legal community in Indonesia."

The firm secured the award for Aviation Law Firm of the Year after successfully assisted major projects in aviation sector this past year, among others the lease and purchase of 10 aircraft for a national airline, aircraft sale and purchase transactions by a global leader in aircraft leasing. The team is the largest aviation practice group among law firms in Indonesia, with two partners and 8 lawyers, doing all aspect of aviation from regulatory up to structuring ownership for aircraft in Indonesia.

With this recognition and Dentons HPRP's experience of providing legal advice in the aviation sector to both domestic and international clients, the firm is in a strong position to continue presenting the best legal services with value for clients.

The ALB Law Awards are the pre-eminent legal awards in Asia-Pacific, held annually in Hong Kong, Singapore, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia, the Philippines and China. The Awards comprise months of intensive research and culminate in an Awarding Ceremony in each of the markets.
