

Dentons HPRP's partner Hendra Ong participated in a prestigious discussion on the Aviation Sector with Bisnis Indonesia

September 12, 2018

Dentons HPRP's partner, Hendra Ong, in his capacity as the member of management board of Indonesian Air Law Society (Masyarakat Hukum Udara / MHU), took part in a focus group discussion on the aviation sector held by Bisnis Indonesia, a leading national publication in Indonesia (5/9). The discussion presented the latest economic issues in national aviation industry and focused on the topic "the synergy in the implementation of ASEAN Single Aviation Market (ASEAN SAM) to support national economic growth". The discussion was published in the Bisnis Indonesia newspaper on 6 September 2018.

Moderated by Hery Trianto, Chief Editor of Bisnis Indonesia, Hendra and other panelists, including Mari Elka Pangestu, the former Minister of Tourism and Creative Economy and Minister of Trade, were invited to deliver views related to economic issues in the implementation of ASEAN SAM and explore solutions to the problems. Participants were involved in interesting discussions throughout the program; they shared experiences and gave recommendations for solving the problems, such as to allow more airports in Indonesia for ASEAN open sky purpose.

Dentons HPRP has wide experience in providing legal advice for the aviation sector. The aviation team's longstanding experience and expertise cover almost every legal aspect of the aviation industry.
