IBAI and Dentons HPRP have found it's true that besides "know-how", "know who" also matters in the business environment these days. IBAI therefore asked Dentons HPRP with its vast network in Indonesia to support an investment forum for Italian businesses in the country. Both Dentons HPRP and IBAI then held a joint event, "Conducive Investment Climate, A Policy Review" on July 2, 2019, in Jakarta.

IBAI and Dentons HPRP invited senior officers from the Coordinating Ministry of Politics, Laws and Security, the Investment Coordinating Board (the Indonesian investment-licensing authority), and the Directorate General of Immigration, to speak at the event. Dentons HPRP's partner, Fabian Buddy Pascoal, was given the privilege of serving as the event's moderator. Members of the panel gave informative responses to various interesting questions raised by the audience.

The event was attended not only by the Italian business community in Indonesia, but also by attendees from the American Chamber of Commerce, the Hong Kong Trade Office, as well as other business associations and players.

Being delighted with the successful event, IBAI much appreciated Dentons HPRP's credentials, and has expressed interest in fostering the synergy with Dentons HPRP for other joint programs in the future. Dentons HPRP is also an active member of other countries' business associations in Jakarta.
