

Job Creation Act: Coal Mine Downstream Businesses are Officially Royalty-Free

March 9, 2021

The Government of Indonesia has enacted a Government Regulation which serves as an implementing regulation to the Job Creation Act in the Energy and Mineral Resources Sector. The new regulation includes a provision to allow mining companies to obtain royalty-free benefits. It aims to attract business in downstream coal products, which is believed to require large investments.

What is in the new regulation and what does it mean for businesses?
