

The importance of assessment in State-Owned Enterprise restructuring

September 2, 2020

The government of Indonesia continues to improve the role and capability of State-Owned Enterprises (SOEs) so that they can more quickly overcome the challenges of the economic crisis. One effort that can be taken by the government is to restructure SOE.

What have to be considered in SOE's restructuring? Dentons HPRP's lawyer, Michael A. Kaihatu (Partner) has prepared an article regarding the issue highlighting the important points.

The complete article can be downloaded here.

For further information related to the related services that our firm provides, please contact the Partner listed under key contact.

Your Key Contacts

Michael A. Kaihatu

Partner, Jakarta

D +62 21 5701837

M +62 815 9467037

michael.kaihatu@dentons.com